EMBRACE YOUR PLACEMENT

not so small talk

COLOSSIANS 1:16

i was created on purpose, for a purpose. so i stretch out my hands and continue to expand into the best version of myself.

PSALM 16:11

i allow myself to be uprooted and replanted so i can bloom how God intended.

EPHESIANS 3:20

as i entrust myself to God's plan, i see that this process is a beautiful continuation of glorious opportunities for growth.

ECCLESIASTES 3:1A

i embrace this season of placement and choose to be faithful with the little things, even when i can't see what God is doing.

2 TIMOTHY 1:6A

as i continue to put in the work, i embrace this uncertain season, knowing it will yield unexpected results.

i breathe in hope and breathe out doubt as the Author of my story redirects my steps so i can walk in my designed purpose.

2 PETER 1:3

during this season of refinement, i am allowing the discomfort to teach me. God is within me; therefore, i lack nothing.

GALATIANS 5:1

i plant my feet on solid ground and trust the process, even if it looks and feels different from what i expected.

PROVERBS 19:21

i release my plans to God and trust His heart, even when i can't see His hand.

i am resting in God's sovereignty, trusting that what is unseen is more significant than what is seen. he is, and will always be a Way Maker.

JOURNAL EXERCISE

learning to let go

1. how would you define success? are you making choices that are in alignment with that description?

2. what is the most challenging thing about this season of life? ask God to open your eyes to what he is trying to teach you.

as you continue to evolve and expand into unfamiliar spaces, cling to God and lean into his community. whether your battle is internal or visible, know that you are not alone in this transformation process. we are evolving together. thank you for being a part of this community.
